

UPDATE: No Vaccine Mandate for Federal USPS Employees

August 11, 2021

The NRLCA wants to clarify to the membership that USPS employees are not subject to the Biden Administration's vaccine mandate for federal employees. A vaccine requirement would be a condition of employment. This means it would have to be discussed, bargained for, and mutually agreed upon in contract negotiations with USPS. While the NRLCA leadership continues to encourage all members to get vaccinated and do their part to help end the pandemic, vaccines are currently not required as a condition of employment with USPS.
